John R. Shryock Scholarship Award

Kettering- The Kettering Police Foundation will award Cavan Hodgens and Jackson Lockhart both of Kettering with the John R. Shryock Scholarship Award. A short award ceremony will be held at the Kettering Police Department on April 6 at 3:30 p.m.

Cavan Hodgens, the son of Randall and Dawn Hodgens of Kettering, has been a motivated and disciplined honor student at Fairmont High School. He has maintained a high degree of integrity and proven himself as a leader. He plans to attend the University of Cincinnati in the fall and pursue a degree in criminal justice.

Jackson Lockhart, the son of Michael and Valerie Lockhart of Kettering, has proven to be instrumental in his role on the senior class council leadership team at Fairmont High School. His sense of responsibility was evident when he went on mission trips and was active with the spirit chain fund raiser. Jackson will be studying business at Freed Hardman College in the fall.

Each student will receive a $1,000.00 scholarship award named after John R. Shryock, Chief of Police from 1955 to 1977.

Local media are invited to attend the brief award ceremony.
