Robber Wears Black and Lime Green Jacket

Kettering- The Kettering Police Department is asking for assistance in identifying a robbery suspect.

On Saturday, April 17, at 11:02 p.m., the suspect entered the Shell Fuel Center located at 3960 Far Hills Avenue and demanded money. The suspect is described as a white male between 30 and 40 years of age, very thin and between 6'0 and 6'3" tall. The suspect wore sunglasses, gloves, and a unique jacket that was black and lime green in color. We are hoping that somebody may help identify or recognize the suspect due to the different style jacket.

The suspect was polite and respectful toward the clerk while demanding money. He did not display a weapon but kept one hand in a pocket indicating that he had something. The suspect fled the store with an unknown amount of money inside a plastic Meijer shopping bag that he had brought with him. He fled the business in a north direction.

Anybody with any information about this robbery may contact Detective Scott Drerup at 296-2598.

A short video of the robbery incident may be obtained by contacting Ptl. Michael Burke of the Kettering Police Department at 296-2458.
