Citizen Police Academy Offered to Seniors at Charles Lathrem Ctr.

Kettering- For the second year, the Kettering Police Department will be offering a version of the Citizen Police Academy at the Charles Lathrem Senior Center. The Charles Lathrem Senior Center is located adjacent to the Kettering Recreation Center at 2900 Glengarry Drive.

The CPA is designed to introduce the citizens of Kettering to the operations of the Kettering Police Department. Participants will get a glimpse at law enforcement during six sessions.

The first session begins at 2:00 p.m., Friday April 1. The next sessions will be as follows: April 8, April 15, April 29, May 6 and May 13. Each session will be one to one and a half hours. The presentations will include an introduction and overview of the Kettering Police Department, a discussion on professional standards, a demonstration of the department's canine unit and an opportunity to meet Chief James O'Dell.

The academy is offered to senior members of the community at no cost. Class size will be limited to 50 participants.

To register please contact the Lathrem Center at 296-2480.

For more information, please contact Andrea Schott, Educational Program Coordinator at 296-2480, ext. 4707.
