National City Bank Robber Caught, Confesses

Kettering-A 29 year old Dayton resident, ARIC D. STEBERL, is now in federal custody after anonymous tips led Dayton Robbery Task Force and FBI agents to the suspect's identity.

At approximately 10:00 a.m. today, officers went to 68 Garrett St. in Dayton to contact Aric Steberl about the robbery of the National City Bank on Far Hills Ave. in Kettering on Friday, June 29, 2007. Mr. Steberl was arrested without incident as he attempted to run from the rear of the residence.

Aric voluntarily confessed to Kettering Detectives that he robbed the National City Bank.

Arraignment is set for today and a preliminary hearing can be expected within the next three days.

No bond is set at this time for Aric D. Steberl and he is being held at the Montgomery County Jail.

Mr. Steberl robbed the National City Bank of less than $600.00 in cash. The crime of robbery is a felony.

A jail booking photo is not available at Kettering PD, but could be pursued through MCSO Jail.

We have our local media outlets and the citizens of our community to thank for their assistance in this investigation which led to the arrest.
