OVI Arrests During Weekend of "Italian Fest"

Kettering- Kettering Police Officers working a total of twenty-five man-hours above normal shift schedules netted a number of offenders during the weekend of September 08 and 09, 2007.

Eight persons were arrested for OVI, and one arrest was made for an OVI, "physical control" violation. Another person was arrested for Driving Under Suspension.

In addition to the above incidents, two additional arrests were made. One person was arrested on a warrant and a second for Failure to Comply on a felony warrant.

Twelve additional citations were issued to drivers out of a total of twenty-nine traffic stops. There was also a drug possession summons issued to an offender.

The increased enforcement was in place over the weekend in response to weekend festivities within the city.
